

"A CANDIDATE FOR THE REASON
THAT I BELIEVE I CAN SAVE
THE TAX-PAYERS MONEY."

Dana H. Hinkley

CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR
Twenty-Ninth District

HINKLEY'S WORK

No member of the present legislature has done better work for the state of Michigan during this session than Rep. Dana H. Hinkley of Emmet county. His efforts have stood out with constant conspicuousness since the day when he was named chairman of the ways and means committee of the house.

As the head of the most important committee in the lower body of the legislature he has carried more responsibilities than any one member of either house. With these responsibilities went great power and it can be said to his credit that he used this power sparingly and wisely.

Not the least of his service has been his determined effort to curtail the expenses which will attend the operation of the state government during the next two years.

During the last session of the legislature Senator Charles Foster, of Lansing, whose bill making an appropriation of $800,000 for a new office building passed the senate by unanimous vote, was assured by members of the house that the bill would be passed if it could be pried out of the ways and means committee. It was reported favorably by the house committee on public buildings, but Chairman Harry Hinkley of the ways and means committee refused to report it out on the ground that the state could not spare the money.—Grand Rapids Press.

Another state legislator who should be returned—for the good of Michigan is Representative D. H. Hinkley of Petoskey. Hinkley has served as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Lower House. He knows just how badly Michigan needs a "Budget System" for making appropriations. He can be of inestimable service in perfecting a workable "Budget System" that will produce results. His experience and his advice will be of incalculable value to this end. Mr. Hinkley rendered Michigan invaluable service as Ways and Means Committee Chairman.—Grand Rapids Herald.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

Up in the 29th Senatorial District, Dana H. Hinkley of Petoskey is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Hinkley has the exceptional record of having served three terms in the House of Representatives, being nominated each of his three terms without opposition in the primaries. Starting as a lumber piler in a saw mill, and later operating one, his most earnest supporters have been former employees. "Harry," as he is known to his closer friends, started profit sharing with his employees in 1907. He served in the last two sessions as chairman of the Ways and Means committee which by itself marks the influence he wielded in Legislative and many bills aimed at taking money from the State treasury sailed along smoothly until they bumped into Chairman Hinkley and the Ways and Means committee where they were peacefully put to sleep. His experience on this committee has given him unusual opportunity to study the problems that have brought out the agitation for a budget system in this state, and if experience counts for anything Mr. Hinkley, just at this time, more than any man in Michigan, can render invaluable service in working out legislation looking to a change in the policy of making the budget. Mr. Hinkley thinks ten per cent, or a cool million dollar saving is conservative and he would like to participate in making the bill that will bring about this needed reform. If the 29th District nominate and elect Mr. Hinkley, they are assured of a strong Senator, who will be a credit to their District and will bring them additional credit and prestige in the State at large.—Charlotte Republican.

In the closing days of this primary campaign practically all the paid advertising matter of the other governorship aspirants is an attempt to deceive the voter as to the real situation in Wayne county. This is obviously done by the other candidates in the hope they can make up-state republicans believe they are going to get a portion of the immense Wayne county vote—variously estimated from sixty to eighty thousand.

MR. LELAND IS GOING TO CARRY WAYNE COUNTY

the same as the other governorship candidates will carry their home communities and the percent of his home vote will be just as great as that polled by any other gubernatorial candidate. Quite naturally it is necessary for the other candidates to make it appear the Wayne vote is going to be divided—but it is not—Mr. Leland will carry Wayne decisively, but his up-state strength will nominate him for governor, the same as it has for University of Michigan Regent in two republican state conventions. It is Mr. Leland's up-state strength that is worrying his opponents, as they expected to confine his vote to Detroit.

F. C. Martindale, former secretary of state, will be quoted generously this week as saying Mr. Sleeper will carry Wayne county. He said the same thing about himself two years ago when he was a candidate for governor and only polled 8237 out of the 47334 republican votes cast in Detroit, which shatters somewhat his claim to a close political knowledge of Wayne county affairs.

However, we do not appeal to you to support MR. LELAND because he is a winner, but because he is the type of a Michigan born and Michigan educated man who is splendidly equipped by every standard for the governorship of Michigan.

Vote for him August 29.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Qualified Voters of Charlevoix County:

I wish to announce that I will be a candidate for the office of County Road Commissioner on the Republican Ticket at the primaries August 29, to succeed myself. I ask your support on the grounds of efficient and faithful work performed during the past years in office. I also believe that I am now better fitted to perform the work of road commissioner than ever before, and the county would benefit from the experience I have gained. All I ask is that you carefully inspect the record I have made. If, after doing this, it is your opinion that I deserve being retained in office, your support will be greatly appreciated.

EDWARD W. ABBOTT,
Boysie City, Mich.

Doing as one pleases soon ceases to be fascinating if no one objects.

EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS.

Two futile invasions of Mexico and six separate and distinct policies on the question of permitting arms and ammunition to be sent into that country are included in the performance of the Wilson administration in its dealings with our southern neighbors in less than three years. It is this characteristic instability of the government that makes people want a change.

When Charles E. Hughes said: "The dealings of the administration with Mexico constitute a confused chapter of blunders," he gave an explicit characterization of the Wilson administration's policy in one sentence.

Just as it is now obstinately shutting its eyes to the need of industrial preparedness, for three years the Wilson administration refused to see the need of adequate military preparedness. With war on our southern border it was content to rely on a regular army that could only muster 40,000 available men and refused to continue the established policy of building up our navy. When the time came for action, the country had not sufficient troops to police the border and this force has been supplemented by a trifle more than one third the war strength of the national guard. If the national administration had had the ability to interpret the signs of the time military preparedness would have been well under way instead of barely begun.

Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate, recognizes an important fact that Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic president, appears to have overlooked—that the United States is big enough to help Mexico out of the condition of anarchy in which that country is plunged, and by securing order in Mexico, insure peace on our border.

The insuperable handicap of the Democratic party in this campaign is its record.

If the Democratic national administration had left on the statute books in 1894 the federal corrupt practices act placed there by the Republicans there would be no occasion for the present administration's campaign publicity measure which, at best, is a very poor substitute for the law repealed.

President Wilson's campaign managers are entitled to all the comfort they can get out of calling the roll of Progressives who are going to vote for him. It would be an endless task to call the roll of Progressives who are not going to vote him.

For every reason that can be advanced why Progressives should vote for Wilson, ten can be advanced why they should vote for Hughes and the beauty of it is that they know the reasons without having to be told.

The Wilson administration went into Mexico to punish Villa for his outrage on American soil. The only punishment inflicted has been on American soldiers who were shot down at Carranza by order of First Chief Carranza.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Sheriff of Charlevoix County in the primary election of August 29, and solicit your votes.

CHARLES NOVAK.

FOR COUNTY CLERK

To the Electors of Charlevoix County:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Clerk on the Republican ticket, subject to the August Primary. Your votes will be appreciated.

J. H. GRAFF.

FORMER PROSECUTOR AGAIN A CANDIDATE

At the urgent request of my friends I have decided to become a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican Ticket at the August primaries. My past record is well known to all. I will appreciate your support and should I be the successful candidate I will earnestly endeavor to faithfully and ably discharge the duties of the office.

DWIGHT H. FITCH.

Announcement

Jacob E. Chew candidate for Representative, Tuesday Aug. 29, has resided in this vicinity 26 years and is thoroughly acquainted with the county affairs. He is serving his fifth year as Supervisor, is Chairman of the Board of Supervisors at the present time. A long time service as member of the Village Board and Township Board as well. Your support given him will not be misplaced. Mr. Chew stands for a square deal to all the county.

(Pol adv.)

To The Voters of Charlevoix County.

I am a candidate for the Office of Judge of Probate, on the Republican Ticket, at the Primary Election to be held August 29th, A. D. 1916.

I acknowledge my obligations to you for giving me the office four years ago.

If nominated and re-elected, I promise you the same attention and faithfulness in the future to the duties of the office.

SERVETUS A. CORRELL.

To The Voters of Charlevoix County

Owing to the fact that I have so much work on my farm and finding it impossible to secure help, it was most difficult to find time necessary for campaigning. I have decided to withdraw my name as a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds.

I am very grateful to those who have volunteered their support and to those who have helped me in any way and I hereby extend to you my heartiest thanks.

NED B. FOX.

To the Voters of Charlevoix County.

I have decided to be a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds on the Republican ticket at the Primary Election, August 29th. I have been a resident of Charlevoix County thirty-five years. Have held the office of Supervisor of Eveline Township ten years and Clerk six years. If nominated and later elected I will attend the duties of the office to the best of my ability. Your support is respectfully solicited.

MALCOLM A. McDONALD.

ROLLIE L. LEWIS for PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

I wish to announce to the voters of Charlevoix County that I will be a candidate for renomination on the Republican Ticket for the office of Prosecuting Attorney, at the Primaries August 29th, 1916.

ROLLIE L. LEWIS.

Announcement

Ezekiel C. Chew

Candidate for

County Road Commissioner

On the Republican Ticket